A Word from your President!

Here's to the closing of summer and the welcoming of fall. Hope you are all having a great time with your photography.

We are in our second month of the new 2016-17 year and just as you expected – we have a lot of great things are in need of someone to annual Holiday banquet for Phyllis Appell has stepped run.

WE NEED YOU!

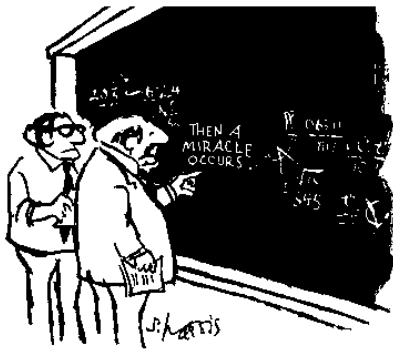

being planned – But we need your help. We step up and take on the organizing of our this December as the past chair person down after a successful two years plus

Yes, it's only September, made now and then getting gather raffle prizes for the the evening to go, slideshows, decoration etc. Here's your chance to get involved in a very fun way.

however, room reservation needs to be some other folks together to help evening fun and depend how you want

This is always a well-attended and fun event that would be greatly missed by all if we were unable to find someone to take this task on. Thank you for your consideration. I am sure that Phyllis would be happy to share her information and expertise with you if you just ask.

We are hoping to have new folks join the team assisting with other tasks throughout the year as they arise. This particular task is time sensitive and cannot wait until later for folks to sign up and assist. You will hear more about how you can be a part of the 'SBCC happening' in coming monthly meetings.

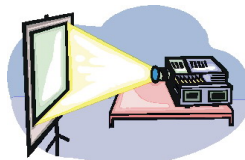

"I THINK YOU SHOULD BE MORE EXPLICIT HERE IN STEP TWO."

Mark Comon, of Paul's Photo will be doing the critique of our digital images on Sept. 12th.

Paul Blieden, local photographer, will be here on Sept. 26 to give a photo talk about his works photographing birds.

A new club year is starting and dues are due. $45 payable to SBCC (check only). See Chuck Greenwood.
